JEFFREY FIELD

THE HOME OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Jeffrey Field, the home of Nittany Lion soccer, was dedicated on Sept. 29, 1972. Located in the heart of the Penn State athletic facilities complex with a picturesque view of Mount Nittany, the stadium was named in honor of the late Bill Jeffrey, legendary head coach of the soccer program from 1926-52. Jeffrey Field has been the host site for numerous NCAA and conference contests in men's and women's soccer. Games are frequently televised from Jeffrey Field, allowing a nationwide audience to view Penn State in action. Widely regarded as one of the finest grass surfaces in the country, Jeffrey Field was honored as the 2006 Collegiate Soccer Field of the Year by the SportsTurf Managers Association.

PROGRAM HISTORY

On August 5, 1993, then-athletic director Jim Tarman officially announced that women's soccer would become Penn State's 14th women's varsity sport and 29th varsity athletic team overall. Not since 1977, when Penn State granted women's volleyball varsity status, had another sport been added to the Nittany Lions' elite athletic program.

In its 29-year varsity history, the Nittany Lion women's soccer program has grown by leaps and bounds. Here's a look at its history, so far...

1977

• Jan.: A group of female athletes organized the International Soccer Club – Women's Division on campus.

1979

• Jan.: The University formally recognized women's soccer as an independent club sport.

1993

• Nov.: In its final club season, Penn State compiled a 7-5-1 record. Seven team members made the varsity roster in 1994.

1994

• Jan. 7: Patrick Farmer was hired as the first head coach of Penn State women's soccer after a very successful career at Ithaca College.

• Sept. 3: The Nittany Lions took the field for the first time, losing at James Madison, 4-1. Freshman Rachel Hoffman recorded the team's first-ever goal.

• Sept. 11: Penn State claimed its first women's soccer victory with a 4-1 win at Towson State.

• Sept. 18: With a 2-1 win over Indiana, PSU won its first home match at Jeffrey Field in addition to its first Big Ten win.

• Oct. 7: Unranked Penn State registered its first upset of a nationally ranked foe, knocking off No. 8 Wisconsin, 3-0, on the road in Madison.

• Nov. 4: Following their inaugural varsity season, the Nittany Lions participated in their first-ever Big Ten Tournament.

1995

• Oct. 10: Penn State jumped into the national spotlight, receiving its first national ranking. The Lions debuted at No. 17 in Soccer America's poll and No. 22 in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America coaches' poll.

• Nov. 3: After finishing the regular season third in Big Ten play, the Nittany Lions won their first Big Ten Tournament match with a 1-0 win over Michigan State.

• November 11: The Nittany Lions competed in their first NCAA Tournament, fall to James Madison, 2-1, in First Round action at Jeffrey Field.

1996

• Nov. 12: Moving up the national poll, the Nittany Lions finished the season with their then-highest national ranking to date at No. 9.

• Nov. 17: Penn State claimed its first NCAA Tournament victory with a 2-0 shutout at No. 19 George Mason.

1997

• Aug. 3: Making international history, Penn State became the first American women's team to play in London's Wembley Stadium. The Nittany Lions lost to the London Select Team, 3-2, before 40,000 fans. Junior Carole Dutchka became only the second American, and first-ever American woman, to score a goal in Wembley.

• Nov. 16: Senior Rachel Hoffman concluded her PSU career as the Nittany Lions' most decorated player. The four-time All-Big Ten and NSCAA All-Region selection ended her four-year stint as the Big Ten's all-time scoring leader. She also set every PSU career scoring mark to date.

1998

• Sept. 4: Freshman Bonnie Young recorded the Nittany Lions' first-ever hat trick in a 3-0 upset of No. 18 Maryland. Sophomore Jeannine Verdrager assisted on all three goals.

• Oct. 5: Penn State received its then-highest national ranking at No. 6, a spot it held for two weeks.

• Oct. 18: With a 4-2 win at No. 20 Wisconsin, Penn State clinched its first-ever Big Ten Championship with a 7-1-1 record.

• Nov. 8: The Nittany Lions claimed their first-ever Big Ten Tournament title with a 2-0 shutout of Ohio State. The match was also televised by Fox Sports Chicago, marking the first-ever broadcast of a women's soccer match from Jeffrey Field.

• Nov. 29: The Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals, losing to eventual national champion Florida Gators, 3-1, in Gainesville.

• Dec. 8: Junior Kelly Convey became the first Nittany Lion to be named as an NSCAA Division I First-Team All-American.

1999

• Sept. 5: After just one hat trick in five years of Penn State history, freshman Christie Welsh notched four goals in the 4-2 win over James Madison. The All-American finished her initial campaign with three hat tricks while rewriting every single-match and season scoring record.

• Oct. 8: In the 3-2 overtime win at Iowa, goalkeeper Emily Oleksiuk made school history as the first keeper to record a scoring statistic, assisting All-American Kelly Convey's goal.

• Oct. 24: Sophomore goalkeeper Emily Oleksiuk became the Nittany Lions' all-time winningest keeper with her 34th victory after 42 matches in the 3-2 win at George Mason.

PENN STATE PLAYS IN LONDON'S HISTORIC WEMBLEY STADIUM

Penn State women's soccer etched its name into the Wembley Stadium record book during its 1997 Summer European Tour.

On August 3, 1997, before a near-sellout crowd, Penn State played an exhibition match with the London Select Team prior to the annual FA Community Shield Match, which pitted the men's regular-season league champion (Manchester United) against the league cup winner (Chelsea FC).

The Nittany Lions became the first American women's team to play in England's Wembley Stadium. Carole Dutchka also became only the second American and first-ever American woman to score a goal in Wembley when she tied the score 1-1 late in the first half. Trailing 2-1 midway through the second half, Shari Pickett knocked in a goal to tie the score. But with 8:00 left to play, England scored the final goal to post the 3-2 win in front of 40,000 fans.

"Our entire team was excited about (the tour) and about the chance to play in one of the great historical stadiums worldwide," said then-Penn State head coach Patrick Farmer. "We saw some different styles of play, and we experienced soccer as more than just a sport. In Europe, the game is a phenomena, it's a part of the culture. The trip was a great opportunity for our players."

At halftime of the FA Community Shield Match, the Nittany Lions challenged the London Select Team in a penalty kick shootout. Proceeds from the event went to the Charity Shield, England's equivalent of the U.S. United Way.

But Wembley wasn't Penn State's only stop. On August 5, the Nittany Lions captured a 4-2 win from Millwall Football Club, the top-ranked club team in the Premier Division, on live national television. Dutchka notched a goal to send the match into halftime knotted 1-1. After falling behind early in the second stanza, PSU reeled off three unanswered goals from Rachel Hoffman, Kelly Convey and Dutchka for the win.

PSU also traveled to Belgium for a match with the Dutch Select Team and to Germany for the S.V. Hemmerdon Frauenfussball Tournament.

PENN STATE LEGEND CHRISTIE WELSH: 2001 NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Christie Welsh, the most decorated player in Penn State women's soccer history, swept collegiate soccer's national player of the year awards as a junior in 2001. Welsh brought home the the Hermann Trophy and the National Soccer Coaches Association of America/Missouri Athletic Club Player of the Year awards.

On December 4, 2001, Welsh became the first Big Ten Conference and Nittany Lion women's soccer player to win the prestigious Hermann Trophy. The 14th female soccer player to be honored with the award, Robert R. Hermann, the trophy's namesake, presented the award to Welsh in a ceremony at the Bryce Jordan Center. Welsh was the second Nittany Lion to garner the award, joining men's soccer legend Jim Stamatis who won the award in 1979 while playing under Hall of Fame coach Walter Bahr.

Two days later, the Missouri Athletic Club announced that Welsh was selected as the 2001 NSCAA Collegiate Player of the Year. The only Nittany Lion to ever win the award, she became the first soccer player in Big Ten Conference history to garner the honor.

The Hermann Trophy is the oldest and most prestigious award in collegiate soccer. The equivalent to college football's Heisman Trophy, the Hermann Trophy was first awarded to male soccer players in 1967 and is presented every year to the most outstanding collegiate soccer player in the nation. The winners are determined through a nationwide balloting of soccer coaches and sportswriters. In 1988 the Trophy was expanded to include both a male and female recipient.

The official NCAA Division I player of the year award of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America, the Missouri Athletic Club Collegiate Player of the Year was decided in 2001 by a voting of all Division I soccer coaches. Presented to the top male and female soccer player in the nation, the recipients received the traditional crystal ball trophy at the NSCAA All-America dinner in St. Louis, Mo.

The MAC Player of the Year was first presented in 1986 to the top male collegiate player. In 1991, the award was expanded to include a female winner.

Past female winners of the Hermann Trophy and NSCAA/MAC Player of the Year award include United States Women's World Cup Champions Michelle Akers, Kristine Lilly, Tisha Venturini, Shannon MacMillan and two-time winners Mia Hamm and Cindy Parlow.

Welsh won the MAC Player of the Year award by a large margin, picking up 152 points. Florida's Abby Wambach finished second in the voting with 119, followed by North Carolina's Jena Kleugel (106), Santa Clara's Aly Wagner (103) and UNC's Danielle Borgman (90).

In 2001, Welsh was the only player in the nation to rank among the top 10 in points per match (third, 2.62), goals per match (fourth, 0.96) and assists per match (eighth, 0.69). That season, she not only helped the Nittany Lions to their fourth-straight Big Ten regular season crown and third conference tournament title in four years, she also broke the Big Ten career records for points, goals, assists and match-winning goals. She additionally broke her own single-season Big Ten record for points (68) and tied the assists mark (18) en route to her third-straight B1G Player of the Year honor.

Welsh was the last player to receive both awards. Prior to the 2002 season, the Hermann Trophy and NSCAA/MAC Player of the Year award were combined to form the MAC Hermann Trophy, which is voted on by members of the United Soccer Coaches, the successor organization to the NSCAA.

• Nov. 4: The back-to-back Big Ten Champion Nittany Lions swept the league's annual honors as Christie Welsh earned Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year accolades.

• Nov. 21: With its 5-0 blasting of No. 19 SMU in the NCAA third round, the Nittany Lions claimed the 100th victory in program history and the 50th win at home on Jeffrey Field.

2000

• Jan. 13: Head coach Patrick Farmer earned NSCAA National Coach of the Year honors at the organization's annual convention. Forward Christie Welsh was named Soccer Buzz magazine's National Freshman of the Year.

• Oct. 22: With her last save in the 1-0 win over No. 19 Harvard, junior All-American keeper Emily Oleksiuk became PSU's career leader in saves. By the end of the season, she ranked first in every PSU career goalkeeper category.

• Oct. 27: With its 1-0 shutout at Michigan State, Penn State recorded its first perfect slate of 10-0-0 in Big Ten play en route to its third consecutive Big Ten Championship. The Nittany Lions became the first team in league history to win three league crowns.

• Nov. 2: Sophomore Christie Welsh earned Big Ten Player of the Year accolades for the second time, becoming just the second player in conference history to achieve the feat. For the third consecutive season, a Nittany Lion walked away with Big Ten Freshman of the Year award: Joanna Lohman.

• Nov. 17: With a 4-0 blanking of Dartmouth, Penn State set the school record of 17 shutouts in the season. The victory marked a then-school record for consecutive home wins with 19 and improved the home unbeaten streak to a record 20 matches.

• Nov. 25: For the third straight year, Penn State advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals, hosting Portland in the season finale.

2001

• Oct. 7: Christie Welsh set single-match and career records in the 6-2 thrashing of Michigan. Tying the school record with four goals in the match, her 12 shots and 10 points were school records. During the match, Welsh tied the Penn State and Big Ten career record with 58 goals.

• Oct. 12: With a goal in the 3-1 win at Iowa, Christie Welsh became the outright Big Ten and Penn State career leader for goals and points.

• Oct. 21: With a 1-0 decision over Northwestern, the Nittany Lions captured an unprecedented fourth-consecutive Big Ten regular-season title.

• Oct. 26: The Nittany Lions' 29-match unbeaten streak in the Big Ten ended when Ohio State dealt PSU a 2-1 loss in Columbus, Ohio. Penn State had not suffered a conference loss since Sept. 19, 1999. All-American goalkeeper Emily Oleksiuk reached the 8,128 minute mark for career minutes in goal, breaking the all-time NCAA record.

• Nov. 8: Christie Welsh was named Big Ten Player of the Year, becoming the first women's soccer player to earn the award three times. Five other Nittany Lions also earned All-Big Ten accolades, while first-year head coach Paula Wilkins was voted co-Big Ten Coach of the Year.

• Nov. 9: Christie Welsh notched a pair of assists in the 2-0 win over Ohio State, landing the Nittany Lions in the Big Ten Tournament final while simultaneously putting her in first place on the B1G and Penn State career assist leaderboard.

• Nov. 11: Penn State pulled out a 2-1 overtime victory over Illinois in West Lafayette, Ind., to claim its third Big Ten Tournament title in four years.

• Nov. 24: Penn State upset No. 8-seed Connecticut in Storrs, Conn., 2-0, in the NCAA Tournament to advance to the quarterfinals for the fourth-straight year. Leigh Hamilton's match-winner in the 87th minute lifted the Nittany Lions to victory.

Emily Oleksiuk earned First-Team All-America honors for the third time while Joanna Lohman appeared as a first-time honoree.

RAQUEL "ROCKY" RODRIGUEZ: 2015 NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

On Jan. 8, 2016, Raquel Rodriguez capped off an outstanding career for the Penn State Nittany Lions by receiving the honor of MAC Hermann Trophy Winner.

The winners and finalists for the MAC Hermann Trophy are determined by a vote of Division I coaches who are members of the NSCAA. Also, an online fan vote (the equivalent of one coach's vote) is factored into the final vote total. The Missouri Athletic Club has been honoring the top players in college soccer since 1986.

With the honor of receiving the MAC Hermann Trophy, Rodriguez becomes the second member of the Penn State women's soccer program to achieve the feat and the third Nittany Lion overall. Rodriguez joins Christie Welsh (2001) and Jim Stamatis (1979) as the lone Nittany Lions to garner the MAC Hermann Trophy.

Statistically, Rodriguez didn't set career-bests in any scoring category, but her leadership on and off the field could be felt during her senior season. Rodriguez, a co-captain in 2015, finished her season with 18 points on six goals and six assists, she started all 27 matches and finished the year with 2,062 minutes played – fifth-best on the team in 2015.

Down the stretch run towards the College Cup title, Rodriguez did not leave the field as she played every minute of the NCAA Quarterfinal, Semifinal and Final matches. Rodriguez though did capitalize on her moment to etch her name into Nittany Lion lore on Dec. 6, 2015. Rodriguez' goal in the 72nd minute off an assist from fellow senior captain Mallory Weber proved to be the match-winner and helped capture the elusive national title for the Penn State women's soccer team four years after falling to North Carolina in the 2012 College Cup Final.

GoPSUsports.com student writer Jack Dougherty wrote about how the statistics don't tell the story of Rodriguez' senior season in an October 2015 blog and he ended the story with "Rodriguez's selflessness can spur Penn State to great things in 2015, but don't be surprised if she puts one in the net at the most crucial time when the season's on the line. That's just what she does."

Rodriguez earned numerous awards in 2015-16, including: MAC Hermann Trophy winner, Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year Finalist, Honda Sport Award winner, CONCACAF Female Player of the Year nominee, Most Outstanding Player on Offense of the Women's College Cup, Women's College Cup All-Tournament Team, NSCAA Scholar Player of the Year, NSCAA Scholar First Team All-American, NSCAA All-Great Lakes First Team, NSCAA First Team All-American, All-Big Ten First Team, Academic All-Big Ten, TopDrawerSoccer Best XI First Team, TopDrawerSoccer's Player of the Year, Penn State Athletics Female Athlete of the Year and CoSIDA Academic All-District first team.

PENN STATE IN THE POLLS / MAC HERMANN TROPHY HISTORY

UNITED SOCCER COACHES (NSCAA)POLL HISTORY

The Nittany Lions made their first appearance in the National Soccer Coaches' Association (NSCAA) poll on October 10, 1995, with a No. 22 ranking. Since that first appearance, Penn State was a familiar listing in the nation's final Top 25 for 13-straight seasons (1995-2007), earning 11 top-10 ratings, including nine seasons in a row from 1998-2006. In 2005, the Nittany Lions received their highest final ranking to date, finishing second nationally after tying the eventual NCAA champion Portland Pilots in the Women's College Cup semifinals.

Prior to that, Penn State's No. 4 final ranking in 1999 and 2002, the first two seasons the Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA College Cup, had been the program's best. In 2005, Penn State also received its first-ever No. 1 ranking when it took over the top spot on October 11 and held it for three weeks before tying host Michigan at the Big Ten Tournament and falling to No. 3 entering the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007, Penn State finished with a No. 12 ranking in the final NSCAA poll. The Nittany Lions returned to the final rankings in 2009 (22), missed 2010's list and then in 2011, made a run to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament to earn a No. 8 final ranking.

The Nittany Lions reached the National Championship match for the first time in program history in 2012. Though they lost to North Carolina in the final, they were just the second Big Ten team to reach the National Title match (Wisconsin, 1991). PSU finished the season ranked second nationally. Penn State claimed the 2015 National Championship and No. 1 ranking after a semifinal appearance and No. 6 final ranking in 2014.

Penn State has appeared in the final United Soccer Coaches poll of the season in each of the past eight years, coinciding with the program's streak of seven consecutive NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances.

FOR THE GLORY OF OLD STATE, FOR HER FOUNDERS STRONG AND GREAT, FOR THE FUTURE THAT WE WAIT, RAISE THE SONG, RAISE THE SONG.
SING OUR LOVE AND LOYALTY, SING OUR HOPES THAT BRIGHT AND FREE, REST, O MOTHER DEAR, WITH THEE, ALL WITH THEE, ALL WITH THEE.
WHEN WE STOOD AT CHILDHOOD'S GATE, SHAPELESS IN THE HANDS OF FATE, THOU DIDST MOLD US, DEAR OLD STATE, DEAR OLD STATE, DEAR OLD STATE.
MAY NO ACT OF OURS BRING SHAME, TO ONE HEART THAT LOVES THEY NAME. MAY OUR LIVES BUT SWELL THY FAME, DEAR OLD STATE, DEAR OLD STATE.
